

Faculty Development Program(FDP) On “UNIVERSAL HUMAN VALUES AND ETHICS IN NEP 2020”

The Department of First Year B.Tech in association with UHV- Team, AICTE organized a seven-day Faculty Development Program (FDP) on "Universal Human Values and Ethics in NEP-2020" from 21 November 2025 to 27 November 2025. The program was conducted with the objective of familiarizing faculty members with the principles of Universal Human Values (UHV) and their integration into the framework of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. The FDP aimed to promote value-based education, ethical decision-making, and holistic development among educators and students.

The FDP proved to be highly informative and enriching. The program provided a comprehensive understanding of human values, ethics, and their significance in achieving the goals of NEP-2020. The active participation of faculty members and the valuable guidance of resource persons contributed to the overall success of the FDP. The knowledge gained through the program is expected to strengthen value-based education practices and foster holistic development in higher education institutions.

About the Programme

The Faculty Development Programme on Universal Human Values (UHV) aims to help educators appreciate the need, content, and process of value education. It focuses on self-exploration and understanding relationships, harmony, and coexistence at all levels-from the individual to the entire existence. The FDP will be conducted online through interactive sessions, reflections, and tutorials based on the UHV guidelines recommended by AICTE.

OBJECTIVES OF PROGRAMME

- To sensitize faculty members to the importance of Universal Human Values in education.
- To facilitate self-exploration for understanding happiness and prosperity.
- To promote harmony within the individual, family, society, and nature.
- To strengthen ethical conduct and holistic human development among educators.
- To enable teachers to integrate human values in their teaching-learning process.

RESOURCE PERSONS:
The complete FDP will be conducted by UHV-AICTE team.
